

Attention Substance Abuse Treatment Referral Sources!

June 2005

ATR-I is Idaho's newest opportunity to expand choice, increase access and create more opportunities for substance abuse treatment. This bulletin is intended to generate your interest and commitment in becoming a confident referral source for consumers who would benefit from substance abuse treatment and recovery support services. We look forward to working with you!

Why should you refer your client or consumer to ATR-I?

- Funding for well-rounded, integrated system of care for treatment and recovery support services exists
- An expanded range of services is available
- Access for you and your client is easy
- Opportunities to detect and screen substance abuse needs early create healthier and safer families, communities and preserve the best of our culture
- Access to a wide variety of quality services and licensed/monitored providers is growing
- Access and opportunity for underserved populations is expanding
- Clients who exercise their choice improve their chances of successful recovery
